

Artists in Partnership and the LBPL are Proud To Present the 11th Annual Cabaret Festival

May 17-19 at the Long Beach Public Library.

The festival will be a celebration of the cabaret genre honoring the Great American Songbook with performances by renowned local and New York City-based artists.

FABULOUS BROADWAY Friday, May 17

Marissa McGowan - at 7:30 p.m.

"Listen To My Heart" with her musical director Brian Hertz on piano.

Colleen McHugh - at 9:00 p.m.

Cole Porter's French Connections with musical director Tedd Firth.

FABULOUS LADIES Saturday, May 18

Cabaret Conversations - at 2:00 p.m.

Established artists along with musical director and pianist Tedd Firth demonstrate and comment on the cabaret genre as they honor the famous and infamous vocalists - the "divas" of the Cabaret World. Susan James will facilitate the discussion while artists Colleen McHugh, Michael Hughes, Stacy Sullivan and others perform in various song styles along with commentary by critic Rob Lester.

Shirley Crabbe - at 7:30 p.m.

presents "The Incomparable Ethel Waters" with David Budway at the piano.

Natalie Douglas - at 9:00 p.m.

in "To Lena...A Tribute to the Lady and Her Music" with Mark Hartman on piano.

FABULOUS JAZZ Sunday, May 19

Marilyn Maye &

Stephanie Nakasian - at 2:00 p.m.

Marilyn Maye and Stephanie Nakasian at 2 pm with pianists Tedd Firth and Hod O'Brien and guest artist Veronica O'Brien.

For more info, please check the AIP website at www.aip-arts.org or call 516-322-1138.

Schedule subject to change.

AIP on Facebook

Long Beach Public Library

111 West Park Avenue, Long Beach, NY 11561 432-7201

www.longbeachlibrary.org ~ email: lblibrary@yahoo.com

AIP eNews

