Flag Day Ceremony

LONG BEACH, NY, JUNE 14, 2015: A Flag Day Ceremony was held on June 14, 2015 at the American Legion Veterans Walk of Honor in Long Beach. Nassau County Legislator Denise Ford and Long Beach City Council Vice President Fran Adelson spoke about the meaning of Flag Day. The event was highlighted by Alyscia Batista, a Long Beach Middle School student who read her prize winning essay, "What the American Flag Means to Me." Additionally ten commemorative bricks were placed in the Veterans Walk of Honor.

The attached pictures show:

THANK YOU IN ADVANCE FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR TROOPS AND VETERANS
