

Long Beach Local Development Corporation (LDC) Annual Report- 2017

In the fifth year of operation, the LDC continued its support for the city's marketing campaign and supported several business seminars for the City of Long Beach. These were successfully completed. Funds were made available from a local sponsor to support economic development. LDC procedures were followed.