The City of Long Beach is located on the south shore of Long Island, just 45 minutes from New York City. Long Beach is a barrier island with a population of approximately 35,000 residents and spans 5 square miles. We are seeking a candidate with a proven track record of success in solving major problems, experience policing a diverse community, a demonstrated ability in building relationships with community leaders, and a commitment to diversity hiring. Minimum ten (10) years of experience as a police officer, with at least five (5) years experience in a management capacity in a police department.

Knowledge of:

- Administrative principles, practices and procedures of municipal police administration, including community-oriented policing, patrol, traffic, investigation and a high level of service provision;
- Criminal laws, codes and ordinances and court interpretations, including rights of citizens, apprehension, arrest, search and seizure and rules of evidence;
- Principles and practices of budget development, administration and accountability;
- Basic principles of local government organization and public administration.

Skill in:

- Planning, organizing, coordinating, reviewing, administering and evaluating programs and the work of staff directly and through subordinate levels of supervision;
- Selecting, training, motivating and evaluating the work of staff;
- Developing and implementing goals, objectives, policies, procedures, work standards and internal controls for the department;
- Effectively representing the department and the City in meetings with governmental agencies, community groups and various business, professional, educational, regulatory and legislative organizations;
- Preparing clear and concise reports, correspondence, policies, procedures and other written materials.

The Commissioner is appointed by the City Manager subject to the approval of the City Council. Our compensation package includes a competitive salary and benefit plans. Resumes will be accepted through Friday, February 17, 2012.
