

CREATING RESILIENCE: A PLANNING INITIATIVE

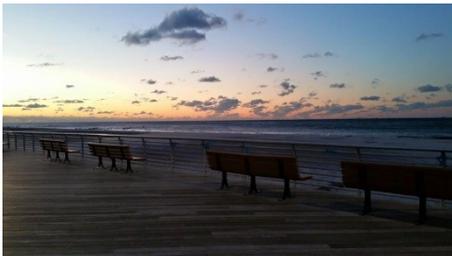

LONG BEACH LISTENS

Public Participation Open House

Your community input has been crucial in guiding the City Council through the Boardwalk Visioning and the New York Rising Community Reconstruction Plan. Now, we are ready to take the next step in Long Beach and want your input on the City's Comprehensive Plan and Local Waterfront Revitalization Program (LWRP) updates to shape the City's vision for the future.

Please attend one of the four public meetings aimed at gathering your input. They are designed as open houses, so you can drop in. Each meeting will focus on city wide and neighborhood focus, so you are welcome to attend whenever it is convenient for you:
